Dear Mr. Edwards,

Thank you so much for asking me, by your letter of August 9th, to be a speaker before The American Club of Brussels.

Unfortunately, present plans do not call for me to be in Europe any time in the future, so I'm afraid I'm going to have to regret.

It is indeed an honor to be asked, however, and I thank you again for thinking of me.

Sincerely,

George Bush

Dear Mr. Bush,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the American Club of Brussels, I would like to invite you to consider the possibility of appearing before our organization as a guest speaker at one of our monthly luncheons.

Founded in 1921, the Club has over 750 members who are primarily businessmen although in 1973 we began enrolling women members who are also active in the business community. Despite the name of the Club, approximately 40 % of the membership is European with a fair sprinkling of members from other countries around the world.

Once a month, September through June, we have a Club luncheon featuring a guest speaker. Since Brussels is the acknowledged "hub of Europe", we have been fortunate in attracting some particularly interesting personalities. These have recently included Sir Christopher Soames, General Alexander Haig, Arnaud de Borchgrave - Newsweek, Viscount Etienne Davignon - International Energy Agency, Jacques Maisonrouge - IBM, Maurice Valante - ITT and in January, Winston Churchill MP.

Then too, press coverage can be extensive. When Peter Grace, President of W.R. Grace & Co addressed the Club last June, the press table included correspondents from AP-Dow, Reuters, UPI, Time, Newsweek, Business Week, The Financial Times and The Economist. In fact, because of the three tier diplomatic community to the Belgian Court, the EEC and NATO, more publications are represented in Brussels than in any other capital city except Washington.

Traditionally, luncheons are scheduled on the second Thursday of the month at the Brussels Hilton, although we can be very flexible in order to accommodate our speakers.

We would therefore like to extend a warm invitation for you to appear before our Club in October, November or December 1976 or in the beginning of 1977, at a date most convenient to you. I know you would generate tremendous interest as a speaker and we would be delighted to have you as our guest.

We are very much looking forward to hearing from you.

Cordially,

Gordon A. Edwards

Dear Mr. Kagan,

I can't tell you how flattered and pleased I was to receive your letter of August 10th. Unfortunately, I will not be able to come to Yale in September or October to be a Chubb Fellow. Having done it once, I realize how great it is and I know I would enjoy it, but my schedule is terribly complicated for September and October.

The Congress hopes to be gone in early October but I'll believe it when I see it, and I have a couple of trips planned which complicate my schedule further.

If a raincheck is in order I would be available in 1977, but I most certainly would understand if the schedule is full. In any event, to you and your associates thanks for extending me this invitation. I am grateful.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ George Bush

Dear Mr. Bush,

The students and fellows of Timothy Dwight College would be honored and pleased if you would accept their election as a Visiting Chubb Fellow for 1976-1977. Your ideas and achievements have created great interest here, and a visit by you would be greeted by students and faculty with warmth and excitement. Your many accomplishments during the years since you last visited Yale would make a return visit particularly welcome.

The Chubb Fellowship, as you may recall from your previous visit, is an endowment aimed at encouraging young men and women to take an active part in public affairs and to undertake careers in public service. The Chubb Fellowship program provides opportunities for students to meet and talk with outstanding people, to benefit from their experience and thought. The enclosed booklet provides details.

If you accept our invitation to come to Yale you would be the guest of Timothy Dwight College. Your activities would include meetings with students and professors in small, informal groups at meals, or around a seminar table. We would also welcome a public address that would give the whole Yale community a chance to hear you. Perhaps you might be willing to hold a press conference. We would, of course, be pleased to arrange meetings with anyone at Yale you would like to see.

The Chubb Fellowship will pay for all travel expenses. In addition we offer an honorarium of $2000. We would like to have you visit us for three days in September or October, but if that is not convenient, we would be happy to arrange other dates. I very much hope you can come.

Sincerely,
Donald Kagan

Mr. George Bush, Director

Dear Mr. Bush:

I am a retired city editor here after more than 42 years in the newspaper business and am now doing a considerable amount of article writing. Through the years I have written for a wide variety of magazines and newspapers.

Recently I read a brief story in a newspaper about a 40-year-to-a-century weather forecast covering the entire earth and prepared for the C.I.A. This was carried out under the direction of Dr. Reid A. Bryson of the University of Wisconsin. The article indicates that unless many nations start safeguarding themselves the radical changes in climates and temperatures will cause great suffering, distress and political and economic disaster.

I am anxious to write an article for a magazine covering in depth the substance of this report. Could the C.I.A. supply me with a copy of it or at least a lengthy summary? I would be most grateful to you and your agency for anything you could do to provide me with this information. If any black and white pictures were available that might in some way illustrate the article I am proposing, I should also like them.

Thank you so much for whatever you can do for me in this regard.

Sincerely,

Frederick H. Kimball
